

Global Scholar Program Application

1. Full Name
2. Email Address
3. What University of Maryland, Baltimore school do you attend?
 - Carey School of Law
 - School of Nursing
 - School of Dentistry
 - School of Pharmacy
 - The Graduate School
 - School of Social Work
 - School of Medicine
4. Degree Program
5. Will you be a full-time student in both the Spring and Fall 2024 semesters?
 - Yes
 - No
6. Participation in a UMB credit-bearing course does not count as a proposal (except an independent study). Is this a credit-bearing course?
 - Yes
 - No
7. In what country do you plan to conduct your research, service, or learning initiative?
8. When do you plan to conduct your research, service, or learning initiative? (include month/s and year)
9. Describe your proposed experience and how it aligns with your professional/career interests and advances your learning. (200-word limit)
10. How will this experience meet the purpose of the Global Scholar Program?

Purpose: The program was created to help UMB students engage in a critical analysis of complex, interdependent global systems and legacies and their implications for people's lives and the Earth's sustainability. Through participation in the program, students will grow in their understanding of how their actions can address the world's most pressing and enduring issues collaboratively and equitably. (200-word limit)

11. How will this experience or the organization you will be working with meet one or more of the Guiding Principles of the UMB Global Strategic Framework (e.g., Social Justice-Focused, Accessible, Ethical, Innovative, Sustainable)? (200-word limit)

12. What organization or program will you be engaging with during this experience?

13. If your project involves human subjects research, share your plan for submitting or being added to an IRB application.

14. UMB Supervisor Name. This could be your advisor, a mentor, a professor, or the Student Affairs Dean.

15. Supervisor Title

16. Supervisor Email

17. Please upload a copy of the Supervisor Approval Form.

Submit